Dimensions Projects, 2012

After the narrator of Let's Talk finds out she can communicate telepathically with her German Shepherds and two cats, we follow their further adventures in learning about the world around them. In Ta Da! their exploits - at home, on the water, and at the beach - have them rescuing birds, deer, and babies. They escape from gators, coyotes, and hunters with murderous intent. All these activities occur in an everyday sort of way - that is, in a way that could happen to anyone or any creature. They also make new friends and share adventures with them, from catching thieves, saving a dog from the Intracoastal, and going on their first plane ride.
